

Political Science 108: Politics of Race, Ethnicity, and Immigration

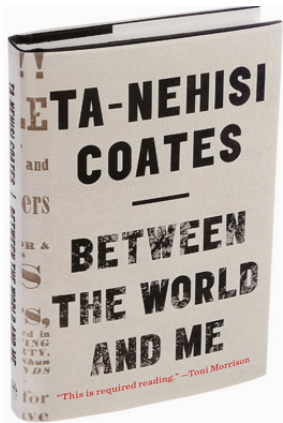

Loren Collingwood

University of California
loren.collingwood@ucr.edu

March 7, 2016

In the News...

- Asian Americans Peter Liang
- Who are Trump supporters?
- Trump Wins Nevada
- Trump loves poorly educated
- Cruz and Rubio

Between the World and Me

- Coates 7 min

Between the World and Me

- Coates 7 min
- The question is not whether Lincoln truly meant “gov’t of the people” but what our country has, throughout its history, taken the political term “people” to actually mean (p. 6)

Between the World and Me

- Coates 7 min
- The question is not whether Lincoln truly meant “gov’t of the people” but what our country has, throughout its history, taken the political term “people” to actually mean (p. 6)
- Americans believe in the reality of “race” as a defined, indubitable feature of the natural world (p. 7)

Between the World and Me

- Coates 7 min
- The question is not whether Lincoln truly meant “gov’t of the people” but what our country has, throughout its history, taken the political term “people” to actually mean (p. 6)
- Americans believe in the reality of “race” as a defined, indubitable feature of the natural world (p. 7)
- However, Coates argues racism starts – need to exclude, box, define as other – then race follows

Between the World and Me

- Coates 7 min
- The question is not whether Lincoln truly meant “gov’t of the people” but what our country has, throughout its history, taken the political term “people” to actually mean (p. 6)
- Americans believe in the reality of “race” as a defined, indubitable feature of the natural world (p. 7)
- However, Coates argues racism starts – need to exclude, box, define as other – then race follows
- Process of naming the “people” not of physiognomy but of hierarchy

Between the World and Me

- Coates 7 min
- The question is not whether Lincoln truly meant “gov’t of the people” but what our country has, throughout its history, taken the political term “people” to actually mean (p. 6)
- Americans believe in the reality of “race” as a defined, indubitable feature of the natural world (p. 7)
- However, Coates argues racism starts – need to exclude, box, define as other – then race follows
- Process of naming the “people” not of physiognomy but of hierarchy
- Acculturation: New people were something else before they were white – Catholic, Welsh, Jewish – are they now white?

Between the World and Me

- Coates 7 min
- The question is not whether Lincoln truly meant “gov’t of the people” but what our country has, throughout its history, taken the political term “people” to actually mean (p. 6)
- Americans believe in the reality of “race” as a defined, indubitable feature of the natural world (p. 7)
- However, Coates argues racism starts – need to exclude, box, define as other – then race follows
- Process of naming the “people” not of physiognomy but of hierarchy
- Acculturation: New people were something else before they were white – Catholic, Welsh, Jewish – are they now white?
- Acculturation: Why do “non-white” groups have to become white?

Between the World and Me

- Elevation of belief in being white – not achieved through wine tastings and ice cream socials

Between the World and Me

- Elevation of belief in being white – not achieved through wine tastings and ice cream socials
- Rather, through pillaging of life, liberty, labor, and land; flaying of backs, chaining of limbs, sale of children

Between the World and Me

- Elevation of belief in being white – not achieved through wine tastings and ice cream socials
- Rather, through pillaging of life, liberty, labor, and land; flaying of backs, chaining of limbs, sale of children
- Meant to deny some people the right to secure and govern their own bodies

Between the World and Me

- Elevation of belief in being white – not achieved through wine tastings and ice cream socials
- Rather, through pillaging of life, liberty, labor, and land; flaying of backs, chaining of limbs, sale of children
- Meant to deny some people the right to secure and govern their own bodies
- Easy to look away – live with fruits of our history and to ignore great evil done in all of our names – but not everyone has that luxury

Between the World and Me

- Police departments of your country have the authority to destroy your body

Between the World and Me

- Police departments of your country have the authority to destroy your body
- Doesn't matter if destruction is result of an unfortunate overreaction

Between the World and Me

- Police departments of your country have the authority to destroy your body
- Doesn't matter if destruction is result of an unfortunate overreaction
- Rice

Between the World and Me

- Police departments of your country have the authority to destroy your body
- Doesn't matter if destruction is result of an unfortunate overreaction
- Rice
- Gardner
- Nothing uniquely evil in these destroyers or even in this moment

Between the World and Me

- Police departments of your country have the authority to destroy your body
- Doesn't matter if destruction is result of an unfortunate overreaction
- Rice
- Gardner
- Nothing uniquely evil in these destroyers or even in this moment
- Destroyers are merely men enforcing whims of our country, correctly interpreting its heritage and legacy

Between the World and Me

- Police departments of your country have the authority to destroy your body
- Doesn't matter if destruction is result of an unfortunate overreaction
- Rice
- Gardner
- Nothing uniquely evil in these destroyers or even in this moment
- Destroyers are merely men enforcing whims of our country, correctly interpreting its heritage and legacy
- “Racism is a visceral experience – it dislodges brains, blocks airways, rips muscle, extracts organs, cracks bones, breaks teeth”

In the News...

- Santa Ana
- “There are different Klans just like there are different fraternities in college.” –David Duke; Newsweek, September 1990
- “I don’t see anything wrong with a neighborhood association wanting to keep their neighborhood a certain way or their apartment complex a certain way. I don’t see anything wrong with white kids wanting to go to school with white children, or black kids wanting to go to school with black kids.” – David Duke Conservative Hotline, January 5, 1994
- The Donald on David Duke
- Harris-Perry
- SC Dem Exit Polls

Baltimore

- Fear:
 - Parents beating kids: it's either me or the police?

Baltimore

- Fear:
 - Parents beating kids: it's either me or the police?
 - Boys squaring off

Baltimore

- Fear:
 - Parents beating kids: it's either me or the police?
 - Boys squaring off
 - Fear tied back in time: “all i see is them girding themselves against the ghosts of the bad old days when the Mississippi mob gathered 'round their grandfathers so that the branches of the black body might be torched..”

Baltimore

- Fear:
 - Parents beating kids: it's either me or the police?
 - Boys squaring off
 - Fear tied back in time: “all i see is them girding themselves against the ghosts of the bad old days when the Mississippi mob gathered 'round their grandfathers so that the branches of the black body might be torched..”
 - Ritual to a street fight, bylaws and codes – attested to vulnerability of black teenage bodies. Is this case with other groups?

Baltimore

- Fear:
 - Parents beating kids: it's either me or the police?
 - Boys squaring off
 - Fear tied back in time: “all i see is them girding themselves against the ghosts of the bad old days when the Mississippi mob gathered 'round their grandfathers so that the branches of the black body might be torched..”
 - Ritual to a street fight, bylaws and codes – attested to vulnerability of black teenage bodies. Is this case with other groups?

Baltimore

- “To be black in Baltimore of my youth – was to be naked before elements of the world, before all the guns, fists, knives, crack, rape, and disease”

Baltimore

- “To be black in Baltimore of my youth – was to be naked before elements of the world, before all the guns, fists, knives, crack, rape, and disease”
- Nakedness not an error, nor pathology

Baltimore

- “To be black in Baltimore of my youth – was to be naked before elements of the world, before all the guns, fists, knives, crack, rape, and disease”
- Nakedness not an error, nor pathology
- Nakedness is correct and intended result of policy – predictable upshot of people forced for centuries to live in fear

Baltimore

- “To be black in Baltimore of my youth – was to be naked before elements of the world, before all the guns, fists, knives, crack, rape, and disease”
- Nakedness not an error, nor pathology
- Nakedness is correct and intended result of policy – predictable upshot of people forced for centuries to live in fear
- The law did not protect – now, law has become excuse for stopping and frisking you
- Stop and Frisk

Institutions

- A great number of educators spoke of “personal responsibility” in a country authored and sustained by a criminal irresponsibility

Institutions

- A great number of educators spoke of “personal responsibility” in a country authored and sustained by a criminal irresponsibility
- Point of this language of “intention” and “personal responsibility” is broad exoneration

Institutions

- A great number of educators spoke of “personal responsibility” in a country authored and sustained by a criminal irresponsibility
- Point of this language of “intention” and “personal responsibility” is broad exoneration
- “Good intention” is a hall pass through history – a sleeping pill that ensures the Dream

Institutions

- A great number of educators spoke of “personal responsibility” in a country authored and sustained by a criminal irresponsibility
- Point of this language of “intention” and “personal responsibility” is broad exoneration
- “Good intention” is a hall pass through history – a sleeping pill that ensures the Dream
- The violence that undergirded the country, and the violence witnessed during Civil Rights movement were not unrelated

Institutions

- A great number of educators spoke of “personal responsibility” in a country authored and sustained by a criminal irresponsibility
- Point of this language of “intention” and “personal responsibility” is broad exoneration
- “Good intention” is a hall pass through history – a sleeping pill that ensures the Dream
- The violence that undergirded the country, and the violence witnessed during Civil Rights movement were not unrelated
- “I knew that he (Malcolm X) had be chafed by the schools, that he had almost been doomed by the streets.”

- The missing thing – this lost essence – explained the boys on the corner..our cracked-out fathers to HIV to bleached skin of Michael Jackson

- The missing thing – this lost essence – explained the boys on the corner..our cracked-out fathers to HIV to bleached skin of Michael Jackson
- Any claim to ourselves, to the hands that secured us...was contestable

- The missing thing – this lost essence – explained the boys on the corner..our cracked-out fathers to HIV to bleached skin of Michael Jackson
- Any claim to ourselves, to the hands that secured us...was contestable
- Howard University was Coates' Mecca

- The missing thing – this lost essence – explained the boys on the corner..our cracked-out fathers to HIV to bleached skin of Michael Jackson
- Any claim to ourselves, to the hands that secured us...was contestable
- Howard University was Coates' Mecca
- “The Mecca is a machine, crafted to capture and concentrate the dark energy of all African peoples and inject it directly into the student body...The Mecca derives its power from the heritage of Howard University, which in Jim Crow days enjoyed a near-monopoly of black talent.”

- The missing thing – this lost essence – explained the boys on the corner..our cracked-out fathers to HIV to bleached skin of Michael Jackson
- Any claim to ourselves, to the hands that secured us...was contestable
- Howard University was Coates' Mecca
- “The Mecca is a machine, crafted to capture and concentrate the dark energy of all African peoples and inject it directly into the student body...The Mecca derives its power from the heritage of Howard University, which in Jim Crow days enjoyed a near-monopoly of black talent.”
- List of HCBUs

In the News...

- Citizenship
- Backed by literature
- Latinos on Race, Identity
- Racial Blind Spots, 21:15
- Democratic Debate

Coates: Prince Jones

- Friend from Coates' days at Howard University

Coates: Prince Jones

- Friend from Coates' days at Howard University
- Was killed by a police officer, who had followed him in plain clothes

Coates: Prince Jones

- Friend from Coates' days at Howard University
- Was killed by a police officer, who had followed him in plain clothes
- Then shot him when Prince Jones allegedly tried to run him over by car

Coates: Prince Jones

- Friend from Coates' days at Howard University
- Was killed by a police officer, who had followed him in plain clothes
- Then shot him when Prince Jones allegedly tried to run him over by car
- Some stats on police killings?

Coates: Prince Jones

- Friend from Coates' days at Howard University
- Was killed by a police officer, who had followed him in plain clothes
- Then shot him when Prince Jones allegedly tried to run him over by car
- Some stats on police killings?
- Police killing stats

Coates: Prince Jones

- Friend from Coates' days at Howard University
- Was killed by a police officer, who had followed him in plain clothes
- Then shot him when Prince Jones allegedly tried to run him over by car
- Some stats on police killings?
- Police killing stats
- Do people trust the police?

Coates: Prince Jones

- Prince went to Howard, was from fairly well-to-do family

Coates: Prince Jones

- Prince went to Howard, was from fairly well-to-do family
- Had no history/record or anything like that

Coates: Prince Jones

- Prince went to Howard, was from fairly well-to-do family
- Had no history/record or anything like that
- Details on his killing were sparse

Coates: Prince Jones

- Prince went to Howard, was from fairly well-to-do family
- Had no history/record or anything like that
- Details on his killing were sparse
- Only witness to the killing was the officer, who claimed Prince tried to run him over with his jeep

Coates: Prince Jones

- Prince went to Howard, was from fairly well-to-do family
- Had no history/record or anything like that
- Details on his killing were sparse
- Only witness to the killing was the officer, who claimed Prince tried to run him over with his jeep
- Coates: “I knew that Prince was not killed by a single officer so much as he was murdered by his country and all the fears that have marked it from birth.” (p. 78)

Coates: Prince Jones

- The police reflect America in all of its will and fear...it cannot be said that it was imposed by a repressive

Coates: Prince Jones

- The police reflect America in all of its will and fear...it cannot be said that it was imposed by a repressive
- The abuses that have followed from these policies – sprawling carceral state, random detention of black people... are product of democratic will. (p. 79)

Coates: Prince Jones

- The police reflect America in all of its will and fear...it cannot be said that it was imposed by a repressive
- The abuses that have followed from these policies – sprawling carceral state, random detention of black people... are product of democratic will. (p. 79)
- And so to challenge the police is to challenge the American people who send them into the ghettos armed with the same self-generated fears that compelled the people who think they are white to flee the cities and into the Dream

Coates: Prince Jones

- The police reflect America in all of its will and fear...it cannot be said that it was imposed by a repressive
- The abuses that have followed from these policies – sprawling carceral state, random detention of black people... are product of democratic will. (p. 79)
- And so to challenge the police is to challenge the American people who send them into the ghettos armed with the same self-generated fears that compelled the people who think they are white to flee the cities and into the Dream
- Tyranny of majority? How do we deal with this?

Coates' America

- Black ghetto areas are set up not protect them but rather undermine freedom and ability to thrive.

Coates' America

- Black ghetto areas are set up not protect them but rather undermine freedom and ability to thrive.
 - How is this backed up with evidence?

Coates' America

- Black ghetto areas are set up not protect them but rather undermine freedom and ability to thrive.
 - How is this backed up with evidence?
 - Cops in many black neighborhoods not there to provide safety but undermine safety

Coates' America

- Black ghetto areas are set up not protect them but rather undermine freedom and ability to thrive.
 - How is this backed up with evidence?
 - Cops in many black neighborhoods not there to provide safety but undermine safety
 - Historical evidence – American infrastructure/economy built on exploitation of black bodies

Coates' America

- Black ghetto areas are set up not protect them but rather undermine freedom and ability to thrive.
 - How is this backed up with evidence?
 - Cops in many black neighborhoods not there to provide safety but undermine safety
 - Historical evidence – American infrastructure/economy built on exploitation of black bodies
 - Historically American institutions threatened rather than protected blacks – is that not the same today?